Please Note: Whilst the Art Gallery of St. Albert accepts submissions from artists living and working outside of Alberta, we ask that those artists take note of our paid exhibition fees, and research the cost of shipping their work to our location. Please consider both factors prior to submitting your work to our 2023 Call for Submissions.

Installation:

Depending on the nature of the artwork, artists may be requested to assist with the installation of their work. In most cases the Gallery will install the artworks. If an artist's exhibit requires them to be onsite at the time of install, please inform us in the submission.
